

What can you do if you see someone on the playground who looks alone and sad?

What can you do if you feel alone and sad?

What have you learned about friendship?

What words help you to practice being a good friend?

What should friends always do?

What should they never do?

